A. AND M. COLLEGE CLOSES AT NOON TODAY.

Presence of a Mild Type of Typhoid Fever the Cause—Statement From Acting President Puryear.

College Station, Texas, May 24.—On account of the appearance of typhoid fever among the students, the faculty has decided to suspend the exercises of the A. and M. College for this session from and after the dinner hour Saturday, May 25. Acting President Puryear authorizes the following statement:

"On May 19, Cadet W. E. Sampson, of Saint Jo, entered the hospital with a fever which in a few days proved to be a typical case of mild typhoid fever. On May 18th other cases began to appear. There has been a total of twenty-five cases of fever of which twenty are thought to be typhoid. Cadets Sampson and C. F. Addicks of Huntsville are still in the hospital and are doing well. The other twenty-three were allowed to go home as soon as the symptoms indicated the probability that they had typhoid fever.

"It is believed that the source of infection is the water in an under-ground cistern, probably contaminated during the recent heavy rains. All the cisterns used by the cadets were promptly closed and distilled water is now used at the barracks and boiled water at the Mess Hall. Bacteriological examination will be made of the cistern water. The cisterns will be emptied and thoroughly disinfected. Vigorous measures will be taken at once to remove every possible source of infection.

"The regular examinations for the senior class were to have begun Monday, May 27. The other classes were to have had one more week of review before their examinations. It will be seen therefore that save for the formality of the final examination the work of the session was practically over and that the loss on that score will not be serious. Under these circumstances the faculty felt that it were better to suspend the exercises rather than run the risk of being obliged to have other students go home with the fever or to keep them away from their homes while sick. The commencement exercises will be omitted.

"The session just closing with the exception of this trouble has been a remarkably successful one. The attendance has been the largest in the history of the College. The parent corps of cadets is a fine body of young men and their work has been of a high grade.

"President Harrington continues to improve."

PROTEST OF SWITCHMEN.

Request President to Secure a Reversal of Recent Decision.

Detroit, May 23.—At the biennial convention of the Switchmen's Union of North America, now in session here, a resolution was adopted protesting against the "kidnaping" of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, and requesting President Roosevelt to use all legitimate means in his power to secure a reversal of the recent decision "legalizing kidnaping." The resolution was adopted unanimously.

The resolution declares that "all laws relative to the protection and liberty of all American citizens in procuring defense were denied these brothers by the governors of Colorado and Idaho, and that their removal to the scene of the murder of ex-Governor Steunenberg constitutes a pure and simple case of kidnaping."

The resolution continues: And "Whereas, President Roosevelt has seen fit to us the public press in expressing sentiments that Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone were 'undesirable citizens,' and previously referred to the Western Federation of Miners' officials as having been implicated in the murder; and

"Whereas, Such statements stand without precedent in the civilized world; and

"Whereas, We believe said statements will affect these brothers in jail in Idaho, condemning before trial. Be it

"Resolved, That the Switchmen's Union of North America, in convention assembled, denounces the series of outrages instituted against the brothers, believing it a serious blow to American citizenship and good government. Be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to President Roosevelt requesting that he use all the legitimate means in his power to compel the courts to reverse the recent decision legalizing the kidnaping of these brothers and obey the intent of the constitution in its rights of men."

A resolution was also adopted urging every member of the organization to become prominent in politics, and to work for men who favor measures beneficial to himself, regardless of party.

OUTRAGED AND MURDERED.

Dreadful Deed Perpetrated on Outskirts of a Village.

New York, May 23.—Amelia Staffeldt, fifteen years of age, was outraged and murdered on the outskirts of her father's farm in Elmhurst, L. I. Word of the outrage spread quickly through the farming section where the girl's father lives. A determined posse of 200 neighbors searched for the murderer, but without avail.

Sy Ashes of Roses

MRS. LEONARD MARSHALL.

"La fin de toute chose...
Adieu, Cendres de Roses." Only a torn scrap of paper trodden in the dust of the Paris streets; within sound of joyous laughter, the buzz of conversation and the whirr of motor wheels.
Only seven little blurred and fear-stained words in a woman's handwriting, mutilated past all meaning for the but so full of import to the initiated few.

Were all things ended for her who had penned them? What depths sery had she sounded? On what Calvary was her woman's heart fied?

Alas! Have we not all our "Cendres de Roses?" Memories of joys supreme that flung open the Gates of Paradise lived the span of life allotted to a rose—or to love—followed by tracting doubts and despairing anguish and the never-to-be-ended life ne that nothing can assuage, no balm will ever heal!

Dear dead relics mayhap of a passion that once raged like a prairie re and gradually burnt itself out.

Ashes of kind words, gone, consumed in the furnace of Time as we, who have lived, loved and suffered, will one day be—a pinch of dust scattered to the four winds of Heaven! For such is the destiny of man!

Flowers of fancy—ashes of roses, you alone are real in a world where most things are false.

For sordid Wisdom cannot arrest the growth of illusions that blossom in our souls. In depths where only our inward gaze may see—among the clefts of the rock they bloom waiting for the magic touch that will reap the harvest if they were not left to die uncultured in the heart starvation of unrequited love.

Mothers have their ashes of roses—toys of little children long since passed away to higher spheres. They are treasured mementoes of a mother's love for the sons and daughters living enshrined in the life of her heart, though men unwisely may have deemed them dead, forgetful that children are immortal to the women who have felt the flower-like touch of baby lips grown cold.

Ashes of roses, sodden with tears of blood, you should be treasured in a vase of porphyry and gold; for the whole world holds nothing half so precious as pure unsullied love!

Ashes of roses safely guarded in some shrine of memory, unforget-ten words that once fell like balm upon a wounded heart, may we never reach the deep regions of black despair wherein echoes the wailing cry
"Adieu, Cendres de Roses!"

For the rose of the world is love, and thrice happy are those who can treasure it, aye, even unto its ashes!

The Effect of the Aeroplane on War

By W. T. STEAD,
London Journalist.

It is not probable that the chief use of the aeroplane in warfare will be to fight other aeroplanes, but rather to drop high explosives upon ships and fortresses. If the airship can be navigated with as much certainty as ships can be steered and propelled at sea, there seems to be some reason to fear that it will within a short space of time convert the navies of the world into scrap iron. Half a dozen aeroplanes floating in midair over battleships at anchor in a roadstead or a harbor would be able to drop bombs charged with high explosives on the decks of the floating fortresses. They would get the range, so to speak, for their aerial torpedoes by dropping hand grenades, and then a single well placed projectile might put the greatest warship out of action. The peril of the Dreadnought from the submarine is as nothing to the danger from this overhead bombardment. For the submarine is not worth much on the high seas, and ships in docks or inclosed harbors are safe from its attack. To aeroplanes ships in docks would be more exposed than if they were lying outside in the open.

It may be that the sovereignty of the sea, which secures England's immunity from invasion, may be destroyed by bolts from the blue. In that case, as we no longer should be able to rely upon our fleets to defend our shores, the advocates of universal military service would have everything their own way.

It is probable that the use of the aeroplane may entirely revolutionize the art of war. For example, the defense of fortresses would become almost impossible if the besiegers could at any hour of the day or night with comparative impunity drop huge shells charged with high explosives in the heart of the citadel or rain down Greek fire upon the enemies' arsenals and ship yards. All fortified places are constructed on the assumption that no attack will be made on them from above.

Therefore it is by no means improbable that the forthcoming conference at The Hague may find itself occupied with a subject which has no place on the official programme. The question will arise, if a new weapon of warfare has been discovered which renders existing methods obsolete, shall we attempt to prevent its use, or shall we be driven to admit that war itself has become practically impossible? In other words, has the aeroplane brought us face to face with the situation to which the discovery of Vril brought the nations in Lytton's "The Coming Race?"

Systematics in Religion

By REV. NEWELL DWIGHT HILLIS, D.D.

its time and method of growth, and the apples of Sodom, stuffed with soot and ashes, represent the disregard of systematic growth. The harvests are, indeed, "the lyric thoughts of God, falling from His almighty solitude," yet they fall at stated periods. The seasons are the notes flying forth from the strings of Nature's lyre as God's solemn hands wander over the possibilities of beauty, yet these notes have their ordained intervals.
David's prayer and song, rising at morning and noon and evening, do but repeat Nature's plan and method.

If in Nature's realm system has perfected our flowers and fruits, the history of our great writers tells us that in the realm of literature systematic toil has polished our most perfect poems and perfected all great philosophies. Drudgery hath gifts to bestow beyond the wealth of earth's most famous instructors. Were we to search out the secret of earth's greatest writers we would find that these votaries have, like David, lingered morning, noon and night in the temple of art, of eloquence or of sweet song. It has been affirmed that in the realm of eloquence man must wait the coming of his nobler moods, that the greatest artists are born, not trained; that the highest eloquence represents certain critical and unexpected moments that of necessity can neither be anticipated nor prepared for. But fortunately the history of our orators is not hidden, and it tells of no orator or statesman whose supreme gifts have not represented systematic practice. For material riches without begin with meditation and the enrichment and culture of the soul within, and each hero and saint of the spiritual life has said with David: "Evening and morning and noon will I pray." When the multitudes cease to flow into the sanctuary to bathe themselves in God's divine ether, to wash the grime from the soul's garments, to sharpen the dulled instruments of the spirit, that moment the bloom and beauty will begin to pass from our arts, our literature, our music, our laws, and the very springs of civilization will dry up. The soul is in its highest mood only when it enters regularly and systematically into the sanctuary, and there, through adoring worship, strengthens that golden cord that binds it to the throne of love.

Nature has her beauty through the emphasis of that system and method which the poet indicates are the source of his inspiration and ardor. For life means system and order; death means confusion and chaos. The toad-

The Club Universal for Young Men

By GEORGE SUTHERLAND,
Executive Secretary, Cleveland, O., Y. M. C. A.

IN these days of exclusive clubs it is possible to point out one club that is open for membership to all good citizens of the male persuasion—the Young Men's Christian association.

Plenty of people think of the Young Men's Christian association as a religious institution, merely. It is that, and more. The religion is mostly on the inside, but can be noticed on the outside through its results. What the blood is to the body, religion is to the Young Men's Christian association.
It works from the heart toward the surface.

Good blood makes a good body.

So much for the policy of an institution which works for the good of mankind, but does not wear its religion on its coat sleeve.

In the Young Men's Christian association everything helpful that can be done for a man is done. Positively no questions are asked about what particular church one belongs to, or whether one belongs to any church. A member may believe anything he pleases; he can be a Jew or a Gentile, a Catholic or a Protestant—yea a Buddhist or a Mohammedan —it is all one at the Y. M. C. A. The association's only object is to help the man, and it does not concern itself about the meisms and tumms of mere dogma.

And the man whom the association influences is helped in many ways. Association workers say they try to help him in three distinct ways—morally, mentally and physically. The first is through association and assimilation, the second through education, and the third by means of what possibly might be termed gymnastication, i. e., physical training in the gymnasium.

When a young man joins the Young Men's Christian association he finds good company. In such company it does not take him long to become interested in things which promote the best interests of his character. Sometimes he makes friends with people who afterward find themselves in a position to help him. Many such valuable aids to success have come out of the fellowship which is engendered at the Y. M.
C. A. But this reference, of course, is to the merely selfish side of the question. After a little while the young man gets past this, and reaches the point where he enjoys helping others. In short, he has absorbed an atmosphere which developed his soul life, and which has made of him a better young man than he was when he joined the association.

Some good things to be found in almost any Y. M. C. A. in the country are its baths—shower, plunge and tub; games of various kinds in gymnasium practice; reading and writing rooms; library; Sunday afternoon talks—neither sermons nor lectures, but genuinely interesting; evening discussions on the pressing problems of the hour; course lectures, presenting the best lyceum talent available; debating congresses; camera, water sport, boxing, fencing, wrestling, musical and outing clubs; employment bureaus; night school classes, etc.

"Better Manhood!" is the motto of the Young Men's Christian association.

The Two Seals of the Book of Life

By REV. THOMAS E. BARR, Milwaukee.

The book of life is sealed with two words—rights and duties. What is due to us from the world, what is due from us to the world—these two complete the circle of our social relations.
Even in the higher sphere in which we deal with God the same division holds; some things we may expect from God, specially that we shall be dealt with in accordance with the nature he has given us and the conditions under which we are placed; some things of faith and obedience and following, we owe to him. These two supplement each other. Our first necessities compel us to seek our rights, to demand of men what we feel is due to us, of opportunity, of supply, of consideration. Associated life forces us to recognize duty, obligation to give even as we demand; as children we owe obedience to our parents, as students to teachers, as employees to employers, as citizens to the law, as human souls to God. The chain is complete.

Duty is first in importance. It is always at hand. It is a continual seed time. Duty ignored to-day may break a thread in the fabric of life which years hence will spoil our happiness. Duty is the gateway to knowledge and the means of power. To-day's duty educates and strengthens for to-morrow's responsibility and the next day's battle for rights.
Duty performed is the protection against our ignorance. Duty performed, honestly and ungrudgingly, holds us in accord with this unseen, unfolding life, and brings us with clean hands to plead for our rights in the court of humanity or heaven.

This is the way out of our troubles. It is not only a good road to follow. It is the road we must travel. We shall only heap up sorrow for ourselves until we learn to do the first things first, to do our duty and so find our rights. Thus it was that Jesus, reminding his hearers of the ungrudging love of parents as picturing the love of God for men, said, "Therefore, all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets."

The truth is, I fear, that madness has a great advantage over sanity.
Sanity is always careless. Madness is always careful.

There is a great deal of falsehood in the notion that truth must necessarily prevail.

Advantages of Madness

By GILBERT J. CHESTERTON, Noted English Writer.

There is this falsehood to start with: that if a man has got the truth he is generally happy. And if he is happy he is generally lazy. The incessant activity, the exaggerated intelligence, generally belong to those who are a little wrong and just a little right.

The whole advantage of those who think that Bacon wrote Shakespeare lies simply in the fact that they care whether Bacon wrote Shakespeare. The whole disadvantage of those who do not think it lies in the fact that they do not care about it. The sane man who is sane enough to see that Shakespeare wrote Shakespeare is the man who is sane enough not to worry whether he did or not.

typhoid.
Not a man but has a pneumonia germ in his mouth. It will not affect the healthy being, but let a man get a cold and it will take its seat in his lungs.

I think a man ought to choose his own ration. Lots of people are vegetarians. I think we eat too much meat for health. I HAVE VOL-UNTARILY CUT DOWN MY MEAT TO ONE MEAL A DAY, and I do not eat very much at that.

For the sustenance of physical exertion, if you have hard work to do, there is nothing better than starch or sugar. The cereal-eating nations can endure more physical toil than the meat-eating nations.

You cannot tire out a Jap who eats rice. He will draw you all around the town on a pound of rice and be as fresh at the close of the day as when he started.

You could not do that on a pound of meat to save your life.

A man may drink a glass of typhoid germs if he is in vigorous health and may not get typhoid fever, because his system may throw off the poison, but if he is broken down one of the germs will get hold of his intestines and produce ulceration and

Rules for Perennial Youth

By DR. COHEN,
Noted London Specialist.

25 in the case of men, and 18 or 20 in the case of women, the framework of the body is being formed and the diet should be generous. After the thirtieth year has been passed it is no longer necessary to eat to make more tissues, but only to preserve equilibrium of weight and strength. Yet at that time eating is a pleasure highly appreciated. Therefore, most men and women eat too much, and this is the time of life when indiscretions in diet produce disease with especial frequency.

Do not eat heavy suppers.
Drink little or no alcohol.
Avoid rich meats and pastry.
Do not grow fat by eating too much. Fat people seldom reach a good old age. The youthful old man is lean.
Lessen your food continually as you grow older.
Overeating produces all the diseases that make one old.
Underfeeding shortens life.
Just enough and a trade over is the ideal.

What man or woman, growing old, would not give a fortune for the renewal of youth? With a little care they might have kept it for ten or a dozen years longer, but its value was not realized until too late.

It is a well known fact that Panama hats cost more at wholesale this year than they did last, but by a streak of good luck or good fortune (whatever you want to call it) we have bought a lot at last year's prices, and are prepared to offer as FINE VALUES FOR THE MONEY as we did last year. We are especially proud of the grade that we are running as a

NO CASE ESTABLISHED.

Judge Maxey So Holds, and Orders Release of Defendant.

San Antonio, May 23.—After the state had concluded the presentation of its case in the Federal court against Louis Lechinger, the Houston jeweler charged with smuggling $23,000 worth of jewelry from Mexico, Judge Maxey instructed the jury to find the defendant not guilty. He held that no case had been established. The defense presented no evidence at all, although a large number of character witnesses had come up from Houston to testify in Lechinger's behalf.

Lechinger gave bond for the full appraised value of the jewelry, and it was turned over to him. There is a civil suit pending for the confiscation of the jewelry, but this will now probably be dismissed, as the result of the criminal case is a bar to further proceedings.

PARADE STREETS.

Seven Hundred Grand Army Veterans March at Enid.

Enid, Okla., May 23.—The seventh annual encampment of the Oklahoma Grand Army of the Republic opened here in the Loewen Opera House. At the morning session Judge M. C. Garber of Enid delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by M. M. Duncan of Lawton. The parade was the largest ever seen in this city, being participated in by over 700 old veterans, local, civic and military organizations and over 600 school children.

Thousands of spectators along the line of march cheered the aged veterans marching to the music of the life and drum as they did in 1861. Wednesday night there was a programme of flag drills, music and addresses at the opera house.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL JUNE 9.

According to present plans, the revival under the direction of the Christian church, and to be conducted under a large tabernacle in the courthouse yard by Evangelists Wilhite and Tuckerman, will begin on June 9, possibly a few days earlier. The tabernacle will be built the coming week and will be 60x100 feet. Pastor Challenor and his congregation are busy with the preliminary details for the meeting.

Evangelists Wilhite and Tuckerman are having great success with the meeting in Hillsboro, and had fifty-one additions to the church up to Wednesday. The Hillsboro Mirror tells of the wonderful results of the meeting which is drawing immense crowds that overflow the building at each service.

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not quickly Preventics can and will check colds or the Grippe—I will mail you free on Preventics are thoroughly harmless little Candy Cold Cure tablets. No Quinine, no laxative, nothing sickening whatever.

To check early Colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia.
To stop a cold with Preventics is surely safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterward. Preventics will however reach a deeply seated cold. But taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break or head off these early colds. That is surely better—that is why they are named "Preventics." Promptness however is all-important. Promptness in the use of Preventics may save half your usual sickness.
Feverishness, night or day, with child or adult, suggests the need of Preventics.

Attorney General Davidson has ruled that insurance companies must comply with the Robertson act by December 21 of this year. The law requires investment in Texas securities on the part of the companies doing business in the state.

A speaker in a recent Sunday School institute declared that we get greater returns from the work done in the Sunday school than from the same amount of energy expended in any other direction. He said we give to this work of talents about five per cent., of time two per cent., of thought two per cent., of treasure three per cent.
In return we get ninety-eight per cent. of our preachers, ninety-five per cent. of church workers, eighty-five per cent. of converts, and eighty per cent. of our churches from the Sunday schools. Surely such large returns should lead us to expend more talents, time thought and treasure in this field.—Christian Observer.

A government report on the Standard Oil Co. has just been issued in which is detailed the work of this company in monopolizing the production and sale of oil during the past 35 years. The report says that the principal means of maintaining this monopoly has been rebates and other unfair methods of getting cheaper transportation than its rivals. A part of the report is withheld on account of its bearing on the suit of the Government against the Standard Oil Co. The Government won its suit in the lower courts, but the matter has still to be passed on by the higher courts. Unless decision is reversed the Standard Oil Co. will be fined a minimum of approximately $2,000,000 or, at the discretion of the judge, a much larger sum.

Crop Notes and Prospects—Preaching Announcement—Cemetery Working.

Sandy Point, May 23, 1907.

On account of excessive rains and cool weather crop conditions in this neighborhood, especially cotton, are very unfavorable.
The extreme cool weather up to the past week has greatly injured the stand.
The cut-worm is also making its appearance in many sections and doing heavy damage, especially to cotton already chopped; though last week with its sunshine and warmer weather caused great improvement in the appearance of the fields in nearly all the neighborhood. At present the prospects are not more than for a half crop compared with last year; of course there may be such weather between now and the harvest as will greatly damage even the present prospects, but the chances are that the weather from now on will be more favorable for the healthy development of the cotton crop.

Mr. S. S. Kennedy is on the sick list.
Mr. W. H. Hall of this community is

Many friends gathered at the Red Hill cemetery last Sunday afternoon at 3:30

She was a lady of lovable and Christian several years, she had so completely won the esteem and admiration of all her pupils and patrons that we shall sorely miss her.

There will be preaching at Thompson Creek church Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock and Saturday morning at 10:30 before first Sunday in June by Rev. Nash of Calvert.
The people will also meet the first Wednesday in June for the purpose of cleaning

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

Sixteen Graduates Were Awarded Diplomas Last Night—Excellent Program—Award of Medals.

In the presence of an assemblage which filled the opera house to overflowing, and amid surroundings that could hardly have been made more beautiful from a decorative point of view, the class of sixteen from the Bryan High School carried out a beautiful graduation program last night under the direction of Supt. T. S. Min-ter.

The decorations were confined to the class colors, white and green. The front of the stage was banked the full length with beautiful cape jasmines; on either side were curtains of white relieved by long, graceful festoons of smilax, caught in portiere effect and following the course of the arch above to an effective centerpiece. This was a basket of handsome carnations, and beneath it "Class '07" shown in letters of white light in a field of green with penants in the class colors above.

White carnations, the class flower, were effectively used in the stage decorations.

Surrounded by these environments the fourteen beautifully gowned young ladies and two neatly dressed young men of the class made a most striking picture.

The program was divided into two parts, the first including essays, musical numbers and awarding of diplomas and medals, and the second a series of beautiful tableaux.

The class honors were creditably sustained by Miss Lucile Batte, valedictorian and Miss Lena Killough, salutatorian, the other members of the class acquitting themselves admirably, as did also Miss Pauline Webb, honored with the response from the ninth grade.
The musical numbers were rendered with fine effect.

The following received diplomas: Misses Alberta Adams, Lucile Batte, Lola Betts, Irene Catherine Board, Loula M. Bullock, Frances Elizabeth Chance, Nellie Cole, Hattie Haltom, Willie Corine James, Lena Vivian Killough, Mary Clinton Knowles, Lucile DeMart, Mary Ross Parker, Bettie Tikalsky; Messrs. John Dixon Buchanan and Marion Franklin.

Miss Lucile Batte, having made the highest average of scholarship, was awarded scholarships in the University of Texas and the Southwestern University of George town.

The Major W. A. Banks memorial medal was awarded for the second consecutive year to Miss Dici Weddington. In presenting this medal Supt. Minter paid a glowing tribute to the memory of Major Banks. The Banks medal is awarded annually for the highest general average in the grammar school and high school.

The Stella Shepard memorial medal, awarded for the highest general average in the eighth grade, formerly taught by her, was awarded to Miss Laura James, the presentation being made by F. M.
Law. Mr. Law's tribute to his former classmate, the late Mrs.
Stella Shepard Sanford, was a gem of oratory and tender sentiment.
This memorial medal is the loving tribute of friends through the instrumentality of Mrs. M. W. Sims and Mrs. W. S. Howell.

In behalf of the teachers of the public school, Prof. J. H. Allen presented a handsome gold headed cane to Prof. Minter, the retiring superintendent, and gave expression to the high regard in which Prof. Minter is held by the people of Bryan, and throughout the state because of his splendid christian character and the great work he has done in the Bryan schools.

Prof. Minter, who had already spoken a word of thanks and leave-taking, replied to the tribute with much feeling. He thanked the teachers, the people of Bryan and the pupils of the school for the kindness and courtesy shown him during his fifteen years connection with the school, and spoke in most complimentary terms of the new superintendent, Prof. W. C. Lawson of Pulaski, Tenn.

The negro brought back from Waco yesterday morning and lodged in jail by Deputy Sheriff Conlee is named Bob Alexander and says he is an employee of the Metropole hotel. He and the Day negro from Dallas tell different tales about the trouble on the excursion train at Wellborn.

An examining trial will likely be held in a day or two. The Alexander negro has a gash over the left eye extending up into his hair, and said to have been inflicted with a razor. The other negro has head or face wounds said to have been given with a bottle.

Abe Guyton of the firm of Guyton & Bolton, who are getting out wood near Cawthon in the lower end of the county, was here yesterday and caused the arrest of four Mexicans who are charged with the theft of a crosscut saw. The Mexicans were overhauled by Deputy Sheriff Conlee between Wellborn and Millican and brought here and lodged in jail.

Miss Bettie Lyon, who has been here visiting relatives and the guest of Mrs.
Josie Lawrence, was called to her home in Waxahachie yesterday by a message announcing that her father was killed by lightning near that city yesterday morning.
Mr. Lyon was a middle aged man and leaves a wife and several children. The news of his death was a great shock to relatives and friends here.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.
In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made, a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no need—no actual excuse to suffer longer with rheumatism. We sell, and in confidence recommend

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.
If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is cloudy, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month. Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

KUROKI VISITS YALE.

Twenty Students From Japan Greet Countryman.

New Haven, May 21.—The visit to Yale university of General Kuroki was brought about by the desire of the distinguished soldier to see the institution in which many Japanese officers received a portion of their education in the higher branches.

At Woodbridge hall, General Kuroki and party were officially received by President Hadley of the university, and here, also, twenty Japanese students were assembled, and presented an address through their spokesman, Dr. Sakai, a graduate student of the field scientific school. A lunch was served the party at the Graduates' club.

General Kuroki and his party left for New York shortly before 4 o'clock, and at the railway station the Japanese students gave him a hearty send-off.

CALLED "KIDNAPING."

Hawley Urges Method of Arresting Miners' Officials Be Denounced.

Detroit, May 21.—Grand Master Frank T. Hawley, in his annual address at the opening here of the biennial convention of the Switchmen's Union of North America, urged that resolution be adopted by the convention condemning the manner in which Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone were taken from Colorado to be imprisoned in Idaho, characterizing their arrest as "kidnaping," and questioning the justice of the trials now begun at Boise on the ground that they rest at foundation upon an unjust possession of the persons of the prisoners.

CONGER IS DEAD.

Distinguished Himself During Boxer Outbreak.

Pasadena, Cal., May 20.—Edwin Heard Conger, United States minister to China during the Boxer siege at Peking, died at his home here. It was largely due to the efforts of Mr. Conger during the Boxer uprising in 1900 that the American legation was saved from destruction and its occupants not massacred. Following the uprising Mr. Conger conducted the negotiations resulting in 1902 with the signing of a commercial treaty with China. In 1905 he was appointed minister to Mexico, but in a few months retired owing to failing health.

New York, May 21.—Abraham Hummel, who for nearly a third of a century was one of the most widely known successful criminal lawyers in this city, Monday began service of one-year sentence in the Blackwell's Island penitentiary. The sentence was imposed upon conviction two years for conspiracy growing out Hummel's connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce litigation.

Stamford, Tex., May 23.—One of the plate glass windows of the C. M. Patillo Hardware company was broken and "Aladdin's Pot of Money" was taken therefrom. The pot contained some $100 in bills, which was kept on exhibition in the window.

FLEE FROM MEXICO.

Large Number of Wealthy Citizens Have Left Their Country.

San Antonio, May 23.—The report that the surrender of Juan Jose Arredondo, leader of the Jiminez (Mex.) revolution, to the authorities at C. P. Diaz caused great consternation along the Mexican border, it being confirmed by late arrivals here. A large number of wealthy citizens of Coahuila have fled to Eagle Pass, Del Rio, San Antonio or to St. Louis for protection. They do not know what charge may be brought against them. In many instances their flight was followed by confiscation of their property to the government.

Used His Fists.

Washington, May 20.—Charles A. Edwards says he used his fists on Senor Garland of the Peruvian legation. "As a diplomat he may be immune from the law," said the Texan, "but he is not immune from my fists."

HANGS HERSELF.

Young Lady Takes Her Life at North Texas Asylum.

Terrell, Tex., May 23.—Miss Georgia A. Hunt, a patient in the north Texas insane asylum here, took her life by hanging herself with a sheet taken from her bed. Deceased was a teacher in the high school at Gainesville, where she became violently insane Tuesday, and was adjudged insane and immediately brought to the asylum, reaching here that night at 9:15 o'clock. She resided at Mexia.

TOOK PART IN SERVICE.

President, Mrs. Roosevelt and Son Worship at Virginia Church.

Charlottesville, May 20.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt and Archie worshipped at Christ Episcopal church, less than a mile from Pine Knot, Mrs. Roosevelt's country home, Sunday afternoon. Accompanied by William and Joseph Wilmer they occupied pews near the front. President and Mrs. Roosevelt entered heartily into the service, their response being very distinct. The service was led by Rev. J. J. Clepton of Casanov. Farquhar county.

At the close of the service the president advanced to shake the hand of the minister and also turned to thank the choir for the music. Before entering his carriage he held out a reception, nearly every member of the congregation shaking his hand. With some of these he chatted quite freely. Before returning to Pine Knot the party took an hour's drive.

The weather was the warmest of the season here. The morning was the so sultry that the only jaunt the president took aside from his trip to church was to Plain Dealing farm, the home of the Wilmers, who are friends of the Roosevelts.

A negro named Lewis was killed while trying to support the dying overseer. Jesse Clark, the negro who did the shooting, made his escape to this city. Richardson and a few white men, it is said, unbraided a negro woman for her actions at the game, when Clark began shooting. The overseer and his companions returned the fire.

Another Triumph of Art.

A young New York artist says that he was in Vermont on a sketching trip one summer. One day while strolling along a pretty lane he overtook a particularly picturesque little fellow who was sauntering along with a string of pole on his shoulder and a string of small fish in his hand. He looked so much the part of the small country boy of poetry and fiction that the artist decided he would like to make a sketch of him, and after considerable negotiation this was arranged for, the lad, in accordance with directions, perching himself on a rail fence. As the artist worked away at his sketch an old countryman came down the lane and stood looking over his shoulder.

"By gum! That certainly beats all hemlock!" the old fellow presently exclaimed admiringly.

"Like the picture, do you?" the artist asked, with a pleased flush.
"Oh, 'tain't that, though it ain't so bad. What I meant was the way you manage to keep that boy quiet so long."—New York Herald.

To Tell a Fashionable Restaurant.

"When I was young," said an old bachelor, "at all the fashionable restaurants you wrote your order. That was the way to distinguish the really fashionable restaurant. You wrote your order there, whereas in the common order you gave it to the waiter orally. Ordering is a difficult matter. It is a thing, especially when one has guests, that one is likely to get flustered over; hence I always liked to write my order. It kept me cool. But a waiter, standing over me, suggesting dishes I didn't want, hurrying me, had the power to rattle me completely. But fashionable restaurants no longer are to be distinguished by this writing business. Writing has disappeared from them. They are to be distinguished now by their French menus—bothersome things that call a sweetbread a ris de veau, a potpie a vol au vent and a leg of mutton a gigot."—Philadelphia Bulletin.
